NEW HAMPSHIRE'S DOWNTOWN SWEET TOOTH TOUR

For the Chocolate Enthusiast

Best Time to Visit: Year-round!

Day 1 – Merrimack to Lakes

- Visit Swan Chocolates (1) in Merrimack to tour their factory.
- Shop at the new Merrimack Premium Outlets (2) village.
- Enjoy lunch at the Farm to Table restaurant The Copper Door (3).
- Continue north to downtown Concord to pick up "supplies" at the Granite State Candy Shoppe (4).
- Drive to Stone Gate Vineyard (5) in Gilford to wash your sweet supplies down with samplings of wine.
- Overnight in Laconia or Gilford.

Day 2 – Lakes to Mountains

- Drive to Kellerhaus (6), the oldest chocolate and ice cream makers in New Hampshire, to enjoy a waffle breakfast.
- Continue around the lake, stopping at the Moultonborough Country Store (7), possibly the oldest store in the United States. Stock up on penny candy and many other treasures.
- Head north to North Conway to ride the Conway Scenic Railroad's Cider Train that stops at the White Mountain Cider Company (8).
- Overnight in North Conway.

Day 3 – From West to East

- Take "the Kanc" across to Lincoln stopping for a group photo at the century and a half year old Albany Covered Bridge.
- Go to Clark's Trading Post (9) for a black bear show and to enjoy a homemade lunch like no other.
- Continue north to Franconia Notch State Park (10) to ride the Cannon Tramway. Make sure to visit their ice cream window before leaving!
- Continue north on I-93 to the world's longest candy counter at Chutters (11) in Littleton.
