SAY M-M-M-M-M-M....MAKEOVER

Canyon Ranch set the bar for spa resorts when it opened in Lenox, Mass., in 1989 (www.canyonranch.com). In recent years, it's gained some stiff competition. These resorts can shape, soothe, and stimulate you from crown to perfectly pedicured toe:

- The Spa at Norwich Inn, Norwich, Ct. (www.thespaatnorwichinn.com)
- Hotel Viking, Newport, R.I. (www.hotelviking.com)
- The Spa at Stoweflake, Stowe, Vt. (www.stoweflake.com)
- Wentworth by the Sea, New Castle, N.H. (www.wentworth.com)
- Cliff House Resort & Spa, Ogunquit, Me. (www.cliffhouse-maine.com)

3 DESTINATION DINING

Few comforts beat tottering off to your room with a brandy after a meal you won't forget. These properties satisfy the gourmand and the sybarite alike:

- Hotel Providence, Providence, R.I.: One of Providence's finest restaurants, L'Epicureo, joined forces with the city's first boutique hotel. (www.hotelprovidence.com)
- White Elephant Inn, Nantucket, Mass.: Spectacular seafood at the Brant Point Grill highlights the sea out front. (www.whiteelephanthotel.com)
- Delamar Greenwich Harbor, Greenwich, Conn.: The Cote d'Azur cuisine at L'Escale matches the Mediterranean villa architecture. (www.thedelamar.com)
- Pitcher Inn, Warren, Vt.: With inspiration from both Europe and Asia, the menu is as imaginative as the themed guest rooms. (www.pitcherinn.com)
- White Barn Inn, Kennebunkport, Me. (www.whitebarninn.com): Retire to a fireplace suite after a prix fixe dinner in the gloriously renovated barn.
- Three Chimneys Inn, Durham N.H.: The wood-paneled Maples Dining Room features modern updates on New England classics. For luxe accommodations, book a Jacuzzi room. (www.threechimneysinn.com/durham)
