

JANET KNOTT/GLOBE STAFF/FILE 2007

Portsmouth a 'distinctive destination'

The National Trust for Historic Preservation placed Portsmouth, N.H., on its 2008 list of "distinctive destinations" yesterday, naming the city as one of a dozen US locales that stand out for their well-preserved historic architecture and rich, cultural offerings. Situated along the Piscataqua River (right), Portsmouth has a wide mix of vintage buildings, shops, and cafes (above). More than 100 destinations in 42 states have been named as destinations since the

