FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:Memorial Day Weekend a Busy One in New Hampshire!

540,000 Visitors Expected to Spend $88 Million Over Long Weekend

Concord NH, May 21st, 2013 – It’s beginning to look a lot like summer, with temperatures in the 60s and 70s expected for the Memorial Day Weekend, the unofficial start to New Hampshire’s summer season. State tourism officials anticipate a busy weekend with more visitors than last year, spending more money.

According to a report by the Institute for New Hampshire Studies, about 540,000 visitors will come from out-of-state during this upcoming Memorial Day weekend, about 1 percent higher than last year. These visitors are anticipated to spend about $88 million, up by 2.5 percent from a year ago.

“New Hampshire is a great place to getaway to for the long weekend,” said Lori Harnois, Director of the New Hampshire Division of Travel and Tourism. “Many of our state parks, attractions and businesses are opening for the summer season starting this weekend.”

Most of the visitors for Memorial Day weekend, the fourth busiest holiday of the year, will be from New England and New York. The number of visitors from Canada will also very likely be higher than last year.
