

DEALS OF THE WEEK

BEACHES IN BARBADOS Keep on the sunny side. With Liberty Travel's 2007 Best of Barbados offer, couples save close to $800 for travel May 1-July 15, when booked by April 21. Starting at $619, the package includes seven nights' accommodations with the seventh night free, daily American breakfasts, $200 air credit a person, round-trip, midweek air on American Airlines and round-trip transfers. There is a minimum seven-night stay requirement. Buy one package and get the second half off on participating ground activities (a value of 25% off per couple). The offer can be combined with seasonal airline fares. Available for travel from the U.S. only. Passports are required for travel to Barbados. Call 1-877-LIBERTY or visit www.visitbarbados.org.

CRUISING ASIA Come sail away. The 513-passenger ocean liner MS Deutschland of Peter Deilmann Cruises visits Southeast Asia on four cruises between Dec. 18 and February. The 14- or 19-night cruises include air transportation from New York and shore excursions valued up to $600 a person, along with round-trip airport/ship transfers. Cruise dates are: Thailand, Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines and Hong Kong, Dec. 17-Jan. 6; Hong Kong, Vietnam, Cambodia, Malaysia and Singapore, Jan. 5-23; Singapore, Cambodia, Vietnam, Hong Kong and Japan, Jan. 21-Feb. 9, and Hong Kong, Vietnam, Singapore, Thailand and Myanmar (Burma), Feb. 8-23. Flight itineraries operate via Frankfurt. One-night pre- and post- accommodations at the Frankfurt Airport Sheraton are included. Free airport-ship transfers are included in any air arranged by Deilmann Cruises, and the cruise line offers a $750 deduction from cruise rates for those who prefer to use frequent-flyer miles, instead of Deilmann's air program. Cruise rates on these sailings, including air, shore excursions and transfers, start at $6,606 a person for a twin-bed cabin for the 14-night sailing. For more details, call 1-800-348-8287 or visit www.deilmann-cruises.com.
