Rail and Sale Tour

Day 1

Get started on this tour with shopping at the Settlers Green (1) outlets.

Head up the road to the Conway Scenic Railroad (2) for a scenic afternoon train ride on the Mounaineer to Crawford Notch.

Return to North Conway Village (3) and peruse the boutique shops while eating a late lunch at one of the many cafés.

End the first day by throwing a private kick-off party with live entertainment and a catered dinner at the Cranmore Mountain Ski Lodge (4) located minutes from the village.

Day 2

Start the morning in Littleton’s downtown area (5). Home to local shops, galleries and eateries.

Lunch will be at the Omni Mount Washington (6) Following lunch, you will take an exclusive tour of the Hotel.

In the afternoon, just 10 minutes away, the group will ride the first ever mountain climbing tracks in the world on the Mount Washington Cog Railway (7).

Day 3

Wake up early and take the Kancamagus Highway through the White Mountain National Forest to Lincoln.

Head straight to the Hobo Railroad (8) to see the Flying Yankee restoration, famous for its part in America’s history during the Great Depression and World War II.

After the tour, head to Clark’s Trading Post (9) for a delicious home-cooked private lunch followed by a ride on the White Mountain Central Railroad. Ride their steam engine through the only remaining, Howe-Truss Covered Bridge in the world. If you need a train break, watch their famous black bear show instead.

Explore the shops and easy walking trails in North Woodstock.

Have a gourmet dining experience aboard the relaxing Cafe Lafayette Dinner Train (10).
Day 4

Head south on Route 16 to the Lakes Region and stop at the Moultonborough Country Store (11). This is possibly the oldest country store in the United States, first opening in 1781.

Arrive in Meredith for a couple hours of shopping at the Mill Falls Marketplace (12).

Have lunch aboard the Winnipesaukee Railroad (13) starting at Meredith Station to Laconia.

From Laconia’s Docks cruise aboard the M/S Mount Washington (14) Cruise on a one-way trip across Lake Winnipesaukee to Wolfeboro the first vacation resort in the United States.

If you are entering or leaving New Hampshire from the south, consider including the Merrimack Premium Outlets (15).
