Five New Hampshire Hotels and Resorts Honored in Condé Nast Readers’ Choice Awards

Annual awards recognize the world’s best travel destinations, accommodations, fine dining and ski resorts

Concord, N.H. - (October 21, 2019) – Five New Hampshire hotels and resorts have been ranked among the best in New England in the prestigious 2019 Condé Nast Readers’ Choice Awards, one of the industry’s highest honors. The Wentworth by the Sea in New Castle and the Omni Mount Washington in Bretton Woods made the list of “Top 25 Resorts in New England,” while the Pickering House in Wolfeboro, The Glen House in Gorham and The Hotel Portsmouth were included among the “Top 30 Hotels in New England.” The annual awards recognize the world’s best travel destinations, accommodations, fine dining, ski resorts, and more.

“We are pleased to see these remarkable New Hampshire hotels and resorts featured prominently in the 2019 Condé Nast Readers’ Choice Awards. From our wild Great North Woods and White Mountains to our beautiful Lakes Region and Seacoast, these recognitions are truly a testament to the Granite State’s tremendous statewide lodging options and destinations,” said Taylor Caswell, commissioner, New Hampshire Department of Business and Economic Affairs. “I would like to congratulate the hotels and resorts recognized this year and I would also like to say thank you to these establishments for doing their parts to make New Hampshire the northeast’s premier travel destination."

Voters had the chance to rate their favorite destinations in 13 categories. Along with the cities of Manchester and Concord, which were included in the “Cities” category, 21 New Hampshire hotels and resorts were nominated to be included on the ballot for the 2019 Condé Nast Readers’ Choice Awards.

Respondents were asked to rate airlines, airports, cities, counties, cruise ships, destination spas, homestays and villa rentals, hotels and resorts, islands, restaurants, bars and beach clubs, tour operators, trains and ski resorts on a number of characteristics, including service, location, nightlife, shopping, culture and food.
