

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S DINE & DASH WINTER BREW TOUR

Suggested Group Itinerary

Best Time to Visit: Winter through Early Spring

When winter arrives, all of New Hampshire's rarities are covered with a glistening layer of snow creating a winter wonderland. Don't worry! You don't need to be a pro on the powder to enjoy all that New Hampshire has to offer. Alongside the plethora of winter wonders, challenge yourself to new adventures and celebrate each day with a glass (or two) of New Hampshire's very own hand-crafted brews and delectable New England inspired culinary traditions.

Day 1

- Enter New Hampshire through Hanover, home of Dartmouth College. This quaint historic town encompasses the perfect amount of New England Charm providing a variety of activities to capture your attention.
- Start the day off at the Hood Museum of Art \(1\) viewing masterpieces from one of the largest and oldest university collections in the country. Then take a stroll down Main Street \(2\) exploring a variety of boutiques and cafés.
- Journey back to the Hanover Inn for a one-of-a-kind farm-to-table dining experience at PINE \(3\) including a presentation by their acclaimed mixologist.

Day 2

- Get an early start with a fresh and locally gourmet cup of coffee from Dirt Cowboy Café \(4\) and/or enjoy a fresh baked pastry from Umpleby's Bakery and Café \(4\).
- Enjoy a morning of snowshoeing, sightseeing, and exploring the back country along the Appalachian Trail accompanied by an experienced Appalachian Mountain Club \(AMC\) \(5\) guide leaving from downtown Hanover, snowshoes and poles provided. Don't forget to bring your packed lunch courtesy of the Hanover Inn.
- Head further into New Hampshire stopping at the Flying Goose Brew Pub & Grille \(6\) to take in scenic views of Mt. Kearsarge while experiencing a tasting of the pub's microbrews.
- Hop on over to Graze Sustainable Table \(7\) to taste farm-raised and housemade offerings prepared from the freshest locally and regionally produced foods. Graze puts a spin on the farm-to-table concept by owning the farm where their food comes from.
